

Bangor Daily Whig & Courier.

PUBLISHED BY JOHN EDWARDS & JACOB A. SMITH, AT NO. 13, WEST MARKET PLACE, BANGOR, ME.

VOL. V.

THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER is published at Five Dollars a year, payable half yearly in advance. All subscriptions for less than a year to be paid in advance, and all orders for discontinued in the amount due. The Bangor Courier is published at the daily Whig and Courier every Tuesday morning, at Two Dollars a year in advance, or Two Dollars and Fifty Cents if not paid within six months from the time of subscribing.

ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted in the Whig & Courier on the following conditions only, and the prices will be strictly adhered to:

For a square three inches to a day or weekly $30 and 50 cents for each week it may be continued in the daily.

More than half a square and less than a square $100 for three months and 25 cents in each week it may be continued in the daily.

Advertisements marked daily and weekly, will be charged 25 cents per square and 10 1/2 cents for less than a square for each insertion in the daily, and 25 cents to regular rates in daily.

The Publishers will not hold themselves responsible for any error that may occur beyond the amount charged for the advertisement.

Mr. Elizur Field at the Mechanics' News Room Boston, is agent for the paper. Advertisements left with him will be immediately forwarded.

CARPETINGS !!

Geo. WHEELWRIGHT, East End of Kenduskeag Bridge, has just received some of the most elegant patterns of English and American Carpetings, ever offered for sale in this city.

Also, -

Wilton and Tufted Rugs;

Venetian Star Carpetings;

Stump Carpetings and Painted Cravens

All of which will be sold very cheap

Painted & Jappanned Ware.

Just received per sehr Free Trade, an assort- ment of Painted and Jappanned Ware, among which are Spoons, Tea Canisters, Spice Boxes, &c. &c.

Also,

Poly Jacket Sockets, Standard Nurse Lamps

and -

Tin Plates of all sizes

Brass and Bronze Topped Andirons & Hollow Ware

Constantly on hand and manufactured in order. Warranted Custom

Ware

At Nos. 13 and 14, Kenduskeag

Bridge, - ALEXFT NOYES

NEW BOOKS, &c.

THE Trial in Questions of Marcus Tullius Cicero, in five books, translated by G. A. Ousey.

The History of the United States by J. F. Cooper, with plates.

Scout's Poetical Works, completely in vols. 12 and elegant paper and type.

Cavalry, or the Way of Honor, by Lady Elizur Bulwer.

The Phantom Ship, by Capt. Marryatt.

The Adventures of Ruth in Italy, the author of "Gaines" -

Richelieu, or the Conspiracy by E. L. Bulwer.

No. 15, Nicholas Nickleby.

The Papers of the Pickwick Club, a new edition of numerous illustrations, and a

Riches, Deaths and Marriages, by the author of Sayings and Dungs.

Vols. 11 and 12, Scio's World Parker's new Edition.

Life of Walter Scott, completed in one vol. octovo by J. G. Lockhart.

No. 2, Jack Sheppard, by M. H. Ainsworth.

Vol. 1 and 2, Scott's Chaff.

Meadow's French Detectives, Pigot's Translator, Parker's Magazine, bound vols. for 1838, and more book numbers for 1839.

Also,

The Museum for April, American Family Magazine for May, Nos. 96 to 101 inclusive Penny Copy

each received by

SMITH & FENNO

No. 111, Broad Street, Bangor, Me.

Refer to

Mrs. Churchill & Carter, Portland.

Fiske & Bridge, Boston

John Suckley, Esq. Boston

A. G. & A. W. Benson, New York

Smith & Ball, New York

John P. Adams & Co. Baltimore

112

PORK! PORK!!

JOSEPH NICKERSON & CO have just recd.

a large lot of Clear and Mess Pork, which they will sell cheap at

No. 2 City Point Block

WANTED--WANTED.

Bush Chaffers, PULLOADES, for which the highest price will be paid

By JOS NICKERSON & CO

2, City point block

MEAL.

JOS NICKERSON & CO will keep constant on hand Indian Meal, which they will sell wholesale and retail. Don't forget

No. 2, City Point

TO PURCHASERS OF

DRY GOODS!

REED & HATCH have just returned from

New York and Boston with the most Splendid assortment of STAPLE AND FANCY

Dry Goods ever offered in this City!

A large quantity of them were purchased with cash at Auction, but a few days since and all are of the latest importations. Their extensive assortment will be open and for sale on Monday next.

GREAT

ADVANTAGE to all who will call and examine our Stock of Goods before making elsewhere.

REED & HATCH,

112, Broad Street.

112,

BANGOR WHIG.

SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1839.

MESMER or a MECHANIC. Being a sketch of the life of Timothy Claxton, written by himself. Together with miscellaneous papers. Boston: George W. Light.

The little volume is valuable, as showing the progress of a poor boy, by the activity and perseverance of his own powers, raising himself from ignorance and obscurity, to command the respect and confidence of his fellow men. Our readers have undoubtedly all heard the name of Timothy Claxton, an industrious and ingenious mechanic of Boston, who was engaged for several years in improving and manufacturing philosophical apparatus for Academies, Lyceums and Schools. In the work before us, he has given a plain, though short account of his progress from the unlettered "apprentice boy" in England, to the station of public lecturer in the course of popular education; and the companion and friend of well educated, scientific men in England and America.

The great design of the work is, to show how great an amount of useful knowledge may be acquired by perseverance, by those in the humbler station; and how widely beneficial that knowledge may become when guided by an ardent desire for the improvement of mankind, and a strong sympathy with the productive classes of the community. It opens the door leading to a great field of enterprise, in which very many within the last few years have delighted to labor, and where there is still room for thousands to make themselves both useful and conspicuous.

The praiseworthy efforts of Mr. Claxton, to establish Mechanic Associations for mutual improvement, and to inspire confidence and a love of knowledge in those who are apt to distrust their own powers, is well deserving of grateful remembrance by mechanics in America as well as England.

The road to wisdom is now open to the laboring men in the Free States, and the blessed influences of the light of intelligence and moral power, are fast breaking the iron of ignorance that has too long encased the minds of operatives in Europe; and the day seems not distant when the great family of man shall adopt new and better principles of government and conduct, and shall feel that they are all embraced in one common destiny, and that the happiness of each depends in no small degree upon that of all.

We value, and would recommend the Life of Claxton, not as a splendid production of literary skill, but as developing in a good degree, some of the means by which this great change is to be wrought. It would afford us pleasure to give extracts did our limits allow, but this is the less necessary as its cost is only about sixty cents, which fairly brings it within the means of all. It can be found at the book stores.

CONCERT.

The Concert of Sacred Music on Thursday evening at the First Parish Church, formed by the several choirs of the city, under the direction of Mr. A. Willey, was altogether a brilliant and happy affair. The house was well filled with delighted auditors. This concert developed one fact worthy of consideration, and that is, that our church music can only be sustained in its force and grandeur, by a numerous choir. For half a dozen singers to develop its power and sublimity is quite impossible, and the necessity of course appears for educating the rising generation in a mass in the principles and practice of vocal music. This we are happy to learn has, in a good measure been undertaken by Mr. Willey, to whom the public is already greatly indebted, and who, so far, has asked but little and received little of its substantial favors.

It was well remarked by the Rev. Mr. Pomeroy at the concert, that church music has been thought the easiest of execution, whereas it is in fact the most difficult. This is eminently the case, and in fact the music in our churches is vastly inferior to what it should, and indeed may be. Of this we are certain, that so long as our churches are willing that a light glee-singing style of performance for public worship by a few hired individuals, shall prevail, we may never expect to have that grandeur and devotional character in music that is alone acceptable. The serious, sober fact is, that the members of each religious society should exert themselves to become acquainted with music, and then willingly and cheerfully to unite in making up a choir for their respective societies.

We enjoyed this concert so much ourselves and knew it was so highly pleasing to many of our friends, that we think it would be well to repeat it.

SCISSORS.

The scissors have nominated Robert Dale Open, the infidel leader, as their candidate for Congress in the first district in Indiana, before he is separated by "collar" Bonn. The Episcopalians in Portland have formed a new society, and the Rev. J. N. French has accepted the invitation to become their minister. The "Liberator" has laid for the present at St. Paul's Church. A United States Sloop of War of six hundred tons was launched last week at Portland. An fog was lately held on the body of a man found upon the lake at Sheer Island. He was dressed in silk clothes, and had apparently been in the water some time. A whole town was destroyed by the Indians. It is stated that it is great, as the town is small but one house, which was used as a dwelling, and the Indians had just broken and taken it.

At the time of the fog, a number of Indians and their few families and their imprehensive whig. Is it indeed? Flogged at last? A well in the Buffalo Advertiser, states that the blue and green tea may be cultivated to a very extent in the United States. The wheat harvesting has commenced in Virginia, and the crop is said to be most bountiful. Since the Thoreau has been put on the route between Augusta and Portland, the stage fare between those places has been reduced to fifty cents; this is cheap travelling indeed. The citizens of Tallahassee have held a public meeting and denounced General Macomb's treaty in strong terms. Thaddeus Stevens has been re-elected a member of the Legislature from Adams county by a majority of upwards of five hundred votes. A rebuke to the ignoramus of the Pennsylvania Legislature.

IMPORTANT DECISION. The South Carolina Court of Errors have decided that the State Courts have no jurisdiction over offences created by Acts of Congress. The case was this: A man by the name of McBride was indicted at Union, South Carolina, for an offence created by an Act of Congress which consisted in opening a mail bag, and purloining money from a letter, which he abstracted. The Grand Jury having found a true bill, the defendant pleaded not guilty. Mr. Justice Earle, before whom the case came on, looking into the indictment, was of opinion that he had no jurisdiction, and refused to try the case. It was then carried up to the Court of Errors, which returned the decision of the Court below.

The democracy is pre-eminently the cause of reform. It is the deadly foe of corruption, of peculation, of overwhelming Executive patronage, and of office holders managing and dictating in elections. Of all the monstrous violations of the democratic principle, the spectacle of an army of office holders watching over and directing the political movements of the people, packing the jury that is to investigate their fidelity and honesty, and tampering with its judgement, is most outrageous. Democracy insists on a free, unbiased, unprejudiced verdict of the great tribunal, and to this end, that it be utterly freed from all selfish and personal influence. It will yet vindicate this principle in the after discomfiture of those who resist it.

Such is the democracy which we advocate and contend for. If not so specious and self-vaulting as the tawdry counterfeit which has so long usurped its name; it will be found far more conducive to the welfare and true to the Liberties of the Country. N. Y. Whig.

Woman's Love. There is a principle in woman's love, that renders it impossible for her to be satisfied without actually doing something for the object of her regard. I speak only of woman in her refined and elevated character. Virtue can sustain men with admiration, and selfishness can feed upon services received; but woman's love is an overflowing and inexhaustible fountain, that must be perpetually impeded from the source of its own blessedness. It needs but slight experience to know, that the mere act of loving our fellow creatures does little towards the promotion of their happiness. The human heart is not so credulous as to continue to believe in affection without practical proof. Thus the interchange of mutual kind offices begets a confidence which cannot be made to grow out of any other foundation; and while gratitude is added to the connecting link, the character on each side is strengthened by the personal energy required for the performance of every duty.

WEALTH. Wealth in this country may be traced back to industry and frugality; the paths which lead to it are open to all; and such is the joint operation of the law and granite of society, that the wheel of fortune is in constant revolution, and the poor in one generation becomes the rich in the next. The rich man, who treats poverty with arrogance and contempt, tramples upon the ashes of his father or his grand father; the poor man who nourishes feelings of unkindness and bitterness against wealth, makes war with the prospects of his children, and the order of things in which he lives. Edward Everett

THE MAIDEN'S RESCUE.

A TALE OF CINTRA.

The road from Lisbon to Cintra is one of the most beautiful and picturesque that can be conceived. The hedges are lined with the towering American aloes; and the luxuriant fruits, the blooming flowers, and sweetly perfumed plants of the south, abound in rich profusion. It is not more than three or four hours' ride from the capital to Cintra, and thither a young and handsome English officer "wended his solitary way," with the view of passing a day or two among the romantic scenery which abounds in its neighborhood.

The town stands beneath a mountain, whose side is clothed with a variegated wood, on which the cork-tree, the olive, the orange, and the vine, sweetly and gaily bloom; and at its summit a convent rears its massy front, the approaches to which are of a most rugged and dangerous nature. Having procured refreshments and a guide in the town, our adventurer, whose name was Captain Dillon, began about mid-day to ascend the steep and dangerous path, though forewarned that he would find the fatigues, at that hour, almost insupportable. He proceeded, however, and with difficulty reached the convent, where he was received with a frank and hearty welcome. The British uniform being a sure passport to hospitality, at that period throughout the whole extent of Portugal. Here he cooled his heated frame by eating the most delicious fruits; whilst the fine and invigorating breezes of the mountain air soon restored to him the capacity for active exertion. Pleased with the monks, who had little of the ascetic, unsocial disposition of their order, Dillon resolved to pass the night at the convent.

"What ruins are those?" inquired Dillon of one of the monks, who was accompanying him, in a ramble round the grounds of the convent, after he had dismissed his guide. As he spoke he pointed to the remains of a castellated fortress, that crowned the summit of a rugged eminence, at no great distance from the convent. "What ruins are those?" inquired Dillon of one of the monks, who was accompanying him, in a ramble round the grounds of the convent, after he had dismissed his guide. As he spoke he pointed to the remains of a castellated fortress, that crowned the summit of a rugged eminence, at no great distance from the convent.

"Those mouldering relics," replied Father Josephim, "are all that exist of a once proud edifice, which was inhabited by a race of infidels of the Abencerrages tribe. Now its mossy walls are mostly crumbled into dust, its gorgeous magnificence has vanished, and the orgies of robbers and smugglers are celebrated in those halls, which were once the resort of the brave and the lair of the followers of Mahomet."

As he spoke, two men were seen stealing along the path that wound round the mountain, in some places overhung by a projecting precipice, to the ruins of which they were converging. They bore something between them, that had the appearance of body enveloped in a mantle; but whether it was male or female, it was impossible to discover.

"What is it?" inquired Dillon. "Why are they, with this evident design to elude observation, conveying what seems to be a human body, under such circumstances? Has some person been committed, and is he to be buried, or, in other words, is he to be buried in the dismal precincts of yonder gloomy walls?"

"Alas! I say you," replied the Father, "such sights are too frequent to our eyes to excite much wonder, however they may demand consideration; and not infrequently the eye of the sufferer from lawless violence is washed on the wings of the wind to these peaceful shades. We have no power to interfere; we can only regard with pity the violations of moral rectitude and religious duty; and offer up our prayers for the safety of the innocent and the reformation of the guilty."

"There are but two," said Dillon; and as he stood for a few minutes wrapped in thought, the working of his countenance, and the expression of his dark eyes, as he looked towards the ruins, evinced that he was revolving some scheme to aid the unfortunate being just conveyed within their walls, if indeed he or she yet lived. His plan, whatever it was, was soon formed. He obtained from the monk a direction as to the easiest way of reaching the ruins, and departed, notwithstanding the remonstrance with which he was assailed; having first taken the precaution to supply himself with a brace of loaded pistols, in addition to his sword "and a better never decked a soldier's thigh" which he always wore.

Proceeding with cautious celerity, he succeeded in gaining the ruins without molestation. The path he had followed ended directly under a wall of considerable height, skirting the edge of the precipice, on which the castle had been built. A little to the right a low arched entrance admitted him into a wide area, which had probably been the once spacious and well filled hall of the Moslems, but which was now lonely and deserted. All was silent but advancing a little further, the sound of voices burst upon his ear, and he looked round to see whence they proceeded. Under a bower formed of the vine, the jessamine and the geranium, the two men he had seen from the convent were now discovered playing at dice; whilst a few paces from them on the grass lay a female form, which even at that distance, Dillon could discover to be young and beautiful. He anxiously watched for some indication which might point to a decisive line of conduct for him to adopt. That the lady, "whomsoever she might be, was not a willing associate of the two ruffians, for such their address, manners and appearance denoted them, with whom he found her, he felt convinced, and it was a moment of relief from a painful state of suspense, when he saw the two men emerge from the bower, and as they advanced towards the spot where he was concealed, overheard them, in the Portuguese language, detail their plans and intentions. He found that they had been deciding their pretensions to their lovely and helpless victim by the cast of the dice; and the one who had been successful was a stern and surly looking fellow, whose face nature had fixed marks of cruelty in his countenance which time could never efface. A ferocious exultation gleamed on his countenance, his dark scowling eyes were lighted up with a deadly expression of passion, and shot gleams of vengeance from under his high and over arching brows; he had varred to the exteded female, and raising her from the ground with no gentle touch, he said something which Dillon could not distinguish. The lady appeared to look up, and as if recognizing the ruthless being by whom she was supported, uttered a piercing shriek, which reverberated in echoes from rock to rock, and at length died away in the distance. Dillon knew not what to do, but his conduct was soon decided. The ruffian commenced a struggle with the unfortunate being that he held in his grasp; who was now sinking under his lawless violence; when not able to contain herself any longer, Dillon rushed down the steps, calling upon them in Portuguese to hold. The ruffians seemed paralyzed for an instant, but it was only for an instant. Both rushed upon Dillon, who discharged his pistol, and brought one to the ground. A short but desperate conflict ensued with the other but the nervous arm of the young Englishman at length humbled this opponent to the ground.

Leaving the helpless and disabled ruffian, Dillon supported the lady he had rescued along the path by which he had gained the ruins, to the convent, which they reached with difficulty, owing to the exhausted state of his charge.

They were received with joy by the monks, who supplied every necessary restorative, and soon the robe of health again mantled on her cheek.

I might here detail the tender conversation that ensued between the lady and Dillon, the love of the latter, and the gratitude which soon ripened into love, of the former, the daughter of a rich citizen of Cintra, who had been decoyed from her home by the ruffians from whom Dillon had delivered her; but though these occurrences are pleasant enough to the parties concerned, they are in general rather insipid to the reader or to a third party. Suffice it to say, that in a few months captain Dillon and the fair Isabella de Castro were united, and they never cease to remember with pleasure, the fortunate circumstance which conduced their acquaintance.

Leaving the helpless and disabled ruffian, Dillon supported the lady he had rescued along the path by which he had gained the ruins, to the convent, which they reached with difficulty, owing to the exhausted state of his charge.

They were received with joy by the monks, who supplied every necessary restorative, and soon the robe of health again mantled on her cheek.

I might here detail the tender conversation that ensued between the lady and Dillon, the love of the latter, and the gratitude which soon ripened into love, of the former, the daughter of a rich citizen of Cintra, who had been decoyed from her home by the ruffians from whom Dillon had delivered her; but though these occurrences are pleasant enough to the parties concerned, they are in general rather insipid to the reader or to a third party. Suffice it to say, that in a few months captain Dillon and the fair Isabella de Castro were united, and they never cease to remember with pleasure, the fortunate circumstance which conduced their acquaintance.

Leaving the helpless and disabled ruffian, Dillon supported the lady he had rescued along the path by which he had gained the ruins, to the convent, which they reached with difficulty, owing to the exhausted state of his charge.

They were received with joy by the monks, who supplied every necessary restorative, and soon the robe of health again mantled on her cheek.

I might here detail the tender conversation that ensued between the lady and Dillon, the love of the latter, and the gratitude which soon ripened into love, of the former, the daughter of a rich citizen of Cintra, who had been decoyed from her home by the ruffians from whom Dillon had delivered her; but though these occurrences are pleasant enough to the parties concerned, they are in general rather insipid to the reader or to a third party. Suffice it to say, that in a few months captain Dillon and the fair Isabella de Castro were united, and they never cease to remember with pleasure, the fortunate circumstance which conduced their acquaintance.

Leaving the helpless and disabled ruffian, Dillon supported the lady he had rescued along the path by which he had gained the ruins, to the convent, which they reached with difficulty, owing to the exhausted state of his charge.

They were received with joy by the monks, who supplied every necessary restorative, and soon the robe of health again mantled on her cheek.

I might here detail the tender conversation that ensued between the lady and Dillon, the love of the latter, and the gratitude which soon ripened into love, of the former, the daughter of a rich citizen of Cintra, who had been decoyed from her home by the ruffians from whom Dillon had delivered her; but though these occurrences are pleasant enough to the parties concerned, they are in general rather insipid to the reader or to a third party. Suffice it to say, that in a few months captain Dillon and the fair Isabella de Castro were united, and they never cease to remember with pleasure, the fortunate circumstance which conduced their acquaintance.

Leaving the helpless and disabled ruffian, Dillon supported the lady he had rescued along the path by which he had gained the ruins, to the convent, which they reached with difficulty, owing to the exhausted state of his charge.

They were received with joy by the monks, who supplied every necessary restorative, and soon the robe of health again mantled on her cheek.

I might here detail the tender conversation that ensued between the lady and Dillon, the love of the latter, and the gratitude which soon ripened into love, of the former, the daughter of a rich citizen of Cintra, who had been decoyed from her home by the ruffians from whom Dillon had delivered her; but though these occurrences are pleasant enough to the parties concerned, they are in general rather insipid to the reader or to a third party. Suffice it to say, that in a few months captain Dillon and the fair Isabella de Castro were united, and they never cease to remember with pleasure, the fortunate circumstance which conduced their acquaintance.

Leaving the helpless and disabled ruffian, Dillon supported the lady he had rescued along the path by which he had gained the ruins, to the convent, which they reached with difficulty, owing to the exhausted state of his charge.

They were received with joy by the monks, who supplied every necessary restorative, and soon the robe of health again mantled on her cheek.

I might here detail the tender conversation that ensued between the lady and Dillon, the love of the latter, and the gratitude which soon ripened into love, of the former, the daughter of a rich citizen of Cintra, who had been decoyed from her home by the ruffians from whom Dillon had delivered her; but though these occurrences are pleasant enough to the parties concerned, they are in general rather insipid to the reader or to a third party. Suffice it to say, that in a few months captain Dillon and the fair Isabella de Castro were united, and they never cease to remember with pleasure, the fortunate circumstance which conduced their acquaintance.

Leaving the helpless and disabled ruffian, Dillon supported the lady he had rescued along the path by which he had gained the ruins, to the convent, which they reached with difficulty, owing to the exhausted state of his charge.

They were received with joy by the monks, who supplied every necessary restorative, and soon the robe of health again mantled on her cheek.

I might here detail the tender conversation that ensued between the lady and Dillon, the love of the latter, and the gratitude which soon ripened into love, of the former, the daughter of a rich citizen of Cintra, who had been decoyed from her home by the ruffians from whom Dillon had delivered her; but though these occurrences are pleasant enough to the parties concerned, they are in general rather insipid to the reader or to a third party. Suffice it to say, that in a few months captain Dillon and the fair Isabella de Castro were united, and they never cease to remember with pleasure, the fortunate circumstance which conduced their acquaintance.

Leaving the helpless and disabled ruffian, Dillon supported the lady he had rescued along the path by which he had gained the ruins, to the convent, which they reached with difficulty, owing to the exhausted state of his charge.

They were received with joy by the monks, who supplied every necessary restorative, and soon the robe of health again mantled on her cheek.

I might here detail the tender conversation that ensued between the lady and Dillon, the love of the latter, and the gratitude which soon ripened into love, of the former, the daughter of a rich citizen of Cintra, who had been decoyed from her home by the ruffians from whom Dillon had delivered her; but though these occurrences are pleasant enough to the parties concerned, they are in general rather insipid to the reader or to a third party. Suffice it to say, that in a few months captain Dillon and the fair Isabella de Castro were united, and they never cease to remember with pleasure, the fortunate circumstance which conduced their acquaintance.

Leaving the helpless and disabled ruffian, Dillon supported the lady he had rescued along the path by which he had gained the ruins, to the convent, which they reached with difficulty, owing to the exhausted state of his charge.

They were received with joy by the monks, who supplied every necessary restorative, and soon the robe of health again mantled on her cheek.

I might here detail the tender conversation that ensued between the lady and Dillon, the love of the latter, and the gratitude which soon ripened into love, of the former, the daughter of a rich citizen of Cintra, who had been decoyed from her home by the ruffians from whom Dillon had delivered her; but though these occurrences are pleasant enough to the parties concerned, they are in general rather insipid to the reader or to a third party. Suffice it to say, that in a few months captain Dillon and the fair Isabella de Castro were united, and they never cease to remember with pleasure, the fortunate circumstance which conduced their acquaintance.

Leaving the helpless and disabled ruffian, Dillon supported the lady he had rescued along the path by which he had gained the ruins, to the convent, which they reached with difficulty, owing to the exhausted state of his charge.

They were received with joy by the monks, who supplied every necessary restorative, and soon the robe of health again mantled on her cheek.

I might here detail the tender conversation that ensued between the lady and Dillon, the love of the latter, and the gratitude which soon ripened into love, of the former, the daughter of a rich citizen of Cintra, who had been decoyed from her home by the ruffians from whom Dillon had delivered her; but though these occurrences are pleasant enough to the parties concerned, they are in general rather insipid to the reader or to a third party. Suffice it to say, that in a few months captain Dillon and the fair Isabella

ADVERTISING
MUSEUM for May. Knickerbocker for June. Burroughs' Journal for June. Bentley's Miscellany for May. Black & Green's New Monthly Magazine for June. Waldron's New Monthly Magazine for May. Waldron's 24 Back numbers of Parley for 1839.

Also
Outlets of the Institutes of Medicine, founded by the Philosophy of the Human Economy, founded by Health and Disease, in three parts, by Joseph A. Gallop M. D. Notes of "Deerbrook." Miss Martineau's new Novel, Charles Tyrrell, or the Bitter Blood, by G. P. R. James, by Mrs. Follen. A "Visit to the country," &c. received by SMITH & FENNO, No. 14, West Market Place.

NEW BOOKS, &c. CHARLES TYRELL, or the Bitter Blood, by James.

Colman's Dramatic Library, 3 vols published by Viscount of the Heart Overstated By N. P. Willis.

Albion of Damascus, by Rufus Dawes. Torles the Under, by N. P. Willis. Young Lady's Guide, by H. Newcomb. Metropolitan Pulpit, or Sketches of the most popular Preachers in London.

The Swift Declining Day, A sacred Canzonette at the Concert of the Portland Sacred Music Society. Composed and arranged for the Piano Forte or Organ, and dedicated to the Society, by Chas. Zeilser. Also.

A new supply of Popular Books, Stationery, &c. Just rec'd by E. P. DUREN, 6 Smith's block.

NOTICE.

WANTED TO HIRE Two capable women to do washing and ironing in a public house in this city, also two first rate girls to work in the kitchen, also two men or boys well qualified to wait in a dining hall.

Satisfactory recommendations as to good character and capacity will be required, and to such as can produce them, very liberal wages will be offered at this office.

Bangor, June 20.

GEORGE PALMER, TAILOR AND DRAPER, No. 14, Main street, KEEPS constantly for sale, a general assort-ment of BROADCLOTHS, CASHIMERES and VESTINGS, which will be sold extremely low for cash only.

FRESH GOODS, At Wholesale and Retail.

1. A. BALDWIN has just received 500 packages Staple DRY GOODS, consisting in part of 500 lbs. desirable styles Prints, all qualities 50 lbs Brown Sheeting.

50 lbs Gold Cambrics

50 lbs Mixture of Fancy Buckskins Blue Drills, Bimini & Rouen Gassimeres 25 lbs Striped Shirting

Bleached and Brown Drilling

25 lbs Choppins, Bayadana & Pongee Halks Red and White do do

80 lbs C. & C. Flag do

10 lbs black Italian Cravats, superior quality

30 lbs 40 inches

20 lbs Sowing Silk and Twists.

100 lbs Cotton and Linen Thread

Scarlet Twill'd and Plain Flannels

White and Yellow do

20 lbs Brown and White Linen

Silks, Canvass and Red Paddings

20 doz India Rubber & common Suspenders

Twill'd Tapes Spool Cotton

Mix'd and Bundled Pins

Fancy and Worsted Buttons

Cotton and Worsted Hosiery

Linens and Silk Gauze

Silk and Cotton Vests

complete assortment of WHITE GOODS, such as 4 and 6 C. Cambrics

4 and 6 C. Check'd Cambrics

4 and 6 C. Bishop Linen

4 and 6 C. Holkumet Tares

100-8 super Highland Plaid Shawls

and a constant supply of first quality Cotton

by the Bale or otherwise, which will be sold to suit traders at very favorable rates.

Trade's representing the 1st ch. will find it an easy call at No. 56 Main street

Indw.

CLEAR AND MESS PORK. Whole New York Clear and Mess Pork

100 Just rec'd for sale 1/4

HOWARD & JENKINS

GENESEE FLOUR. 200 lbs fancy brand, "Fitzhugh," just rec'd

for sale by

HOWARD & JENKINS

GOLD LEAF & FOIL. GOLD, silver and brass leaf. Gold foil for dentists. Silver and copper bronze for sale by

WHITTIER & GUILD

CORN AND FLOUR--AFLOAT. 100 NICKERSON & CO are now landing

from their New York

4600 bush. Yellow Flat Corn

1500 bush. Genesee Flour For sale at

No 2 City Point Block

100 bush. fancy brand, "Fitzhugh," just rec'd

for sale by

HOWARD & JENKINS

MIRCH JOIST WANTED. 50 Bush Joist wanted by the subscriber at

No. 111 Broad Street, Bangor.

SETH E. BENSON Commission Merchant

MOLASSES. 181 Hhds Mariano Molasses, of a superior quality for retaining, now landing from the Lafayete, and for sale by CHARLES COOPER, 14 City Point.

PHANTON. For sale, new Phanton and Harness, for Fash or Lumber. Enquire of SIMON PEARSON, 14 City Point.

NEW CHAISEES FOR SALE.

And other CARRIAGES

At Mr. Shaw's Stable

By J. RUSSETT

414. 9t.

REMOVED from No. 7, City Point

The subscriber has taken the large and commodious Brick Store No. 111 Broad street,

The Edge of the Block, two leaders his-ters, for the transaction of General Commission &

Auction Business. Outdoor sale at Auction allocated in any part of the city on very reasonable terms. Merchandise, Furniture and Goods of all description received in store for sale at Auction

No charge for storage.

Wal pay particular attention to the sale of Lumber of all Kinds or Commission.

The subscriber has now in store on consignment and will sell low for Cash.

12 Feather Bed, high and low prised.

22 Hair Mattresses, very desirable article.

2 bags Superior Bouibong Tea.

3 caskets gr. and Ginger.

3 bags Tobacco.

3 bags Vegetables.

1 lb. B. H. Sugar.

5 gr. orange Litchi Wine

2 bags Port Wine.

2 lbs Bacon Butter.

2 lbs Pig's Fat.

Chairs, Chairs, C. and Red Top Bed.

Wings, Wings, Luster and Wipping Paper.

100 lbs Dry Goods, in Boxes, cheap at 10 Smith's block

FRANCHE MOROCCO SHOES. Just received an excellent assortment of Black Bronze and Green French Slips and Tops, at the Corner of Main and Hammond sts., 118 J. W.

NEAT'S FOOT OIL. CONSTANTLY on hand and for sale to large or small quantities by WHITTIER & GUILD Exchange st. J. W.

STEPHEN'S BLUE FLUID. DARK and Light Blue English Writing Fluid, from 16 to 83 cents per bottle, all sizes.

AND BLACK INK. in bottles from 8 to 50 cts. Each of the best manufacturers warranted genuine. Wholesale and retail by D. BUGBEE, 10 Smith's block.

GOLD AND SILVER-INK. RED, Blue and Black Ink, Indefinite do. For sale by D. BUGBEE, 10 Smith's block.

STEEL INKS. A large quantity of Pens every approved kind, 4 for sale cheap by D. BUGBEE, Bookseller, Stationer and Bookseller, 10 Smith's block.

ISAIAH AVERY. DEPUTY SHIFFRIF, EXETER, Pugwash, County No. All preceps sent by mail will be promptly at 3 dw. J. W.

NOTICE. THE partnership heretofore existing under the firm of BICKNELL & PORTER is by limitation, this day dissolved. E. D. Porter will continue to do business at the Old Stand and is duly authorized to settle the business of the firm.

W. W. BROWN EMERSON & PORTER Bangor June 15. 1839. 3w.

E. & J. MOULTON & CO. HAVE just received 20 lbs of good VINEGAR, which they offer sale at 5 and 7 Smith's Block.

CORN, PORK AND FLOUR--AFLOAT. 1500 lbs. Fancy Pork; 160 lbs. Fancy French Flour. Just received per s.s. Majestic for sale by HOWARD & JENKINS.

LEONARD'S ARITHMETIC, &c. Lot of Leonard's Arithmetics, 20 doz. in 1st quality Writing Books. Also, a few splendid colored Engravings, &c. For sale by D. BUGBEE, Stationer, 10 Smith's block.

HILL & SMITH, REOPENING after a long absence of the very best of FAMILY W. INDIA GOODS AND GROCERIES.

Teas, Coffees, Sugars, Molasses, Tobacco, Cigars, Alspice, Pepper, Ginger, Cinnamon, Saleratus, Pickles, Olives, Ketchup, Nutmegs, Pepper Sauce, Capers, Paris Brouns, Kegs, Jugs, Snuff, Demijohns, Sperm Oil, Olive Oil, Vinegar, Pipes, Mustard, Soap, Candles, Nails, Grass Mats, Vanilla, Lemon Syrup.

CORN, PORK AND FLOUR--AFLOAT. 1500 lbs. Fancy Pork; 160 lbs. Fancy French Flour. Just received per s.s. Majestic for sale by HOWARD & JENKINS.

OWL'S HEAD HOUSE REOPENED. THE subscriber has reopened the above house in Owl's Head in Thomaston. The house has been well fitted up and well furnished, at great expense and convenience for visitors. He will pay every possible attention to all who may visit him for health or recreation. A good stable is attached to the house which will be faithfully and carefully attended. Picnic boats and fishing boats with suitable gear will always be kept for the pleasure of visitors. The steamer Long Island will stop to land and take passengers hereforever.

ALONZO EMERY East Thomaston, (Owl's Head,) June 15. 1839. 3w.

J. T. WEBSTER, At No 4 and 6, Hammond street, Bangor, KEEPS constantly for sale Wholesale and Retail for all low prices as can be obtained in the city.

CONFEDERATION, of all kinds, FRUITS as great a variety as can be found in the city. NUTS of all kinds usual to this market. PICKLES, PRESERVES & KETCHUPS of various kinds.

PASTRY in all its varieties. J. W. having fitted up his Rooms with care and having at all times good and willing attendants, assures all who frequent him with their patronage that the promptest attention shall be paid to their wants.

PARTIES supplied with all kinds of Pastries, Fruits, Ice Creams, &c. &c. as cheap as can be obtained, and of as good quality.

Thankful for the liberal patronage heretofore received and desirous of retaining the same, respectfully solicits & continues

DUN FISH. A few qts. 1lb. Shools Dun Fish just received at No 8, Broad street if G. L. BOYNTON & CO

S. RAW MILLINERY. No 33, Main street, Bangor MRS. R. JORDAN has just received from New York, the latest Fashions of Ladies' Florence Oriental and Straw Hats, which she offers for sale the lowest prices.

Mrs. J. manufactures to order Ladies' and Misses' hats. Also Hats cleansed and pressed by the best manner.

100-8 super Highland Plaid Shawls

and a constant supply of first quality Cotton by the Bale or otherwise, which will be sold to suit traders at very favorable rates.

Trade's representing the 1st ch. will find it an easy call at No. 56 Main street

Indw.

BLUE WRITING FLUID. New Lut English and American, for sale by E. F. DUREN, 6 Smith's block.

DRUGS AND MEDICINES, PAINTS AND DYE STUFFS. OILS of every description Paper Hangings

WANTED. TWO or three good Coat Makers Apply at No 12, Main street

JAMES G. STEWART Dealer in CLOTHES and CASSIMERES. Also New and Fashionable VFSTINGS.

Garments made at short notice and in good shape. Cutting of all garments to be made out of the shop will receive particular attention NOTICE. THE undersigned would respectfully inform his friends and former patrons that he has removed from the east side of the Kenduskeag stream to the store recently occupied by Mr. Abner Greenough, two doors below Mr. Abner Taylor's and is now opening an extensive fresh stock of Superior Boots, Shoes, Hats and Caps of every description and of the latest styles. He flatters himself that the quality and price of his goods will not suffer by comparison with any in the market.

Fine kid and morocco Slippers manufactured to order and warranted.

E. P. BALDWIN Bangor, June 1

BANGOR & PISCATAQUIS CANAL AND RAIL ROAD CO.

111. Passenger Cars will leave the Depot at Bangor until further notice, as follows:

Leave Bangor at 6 o'clock a.m.
114 p.m.
Leave Old Town 7/4 a.m.
2 p.m.
63

Baggage at the risk of its owners.

From Old Town 12/4 cents. to Upper Stillwater 50 cents. Upon Stillwater to Old Town 12/4 cents. Forward Car 12/4 cents less.

Freight will be received on the following terms:

For 100 lbs. Merchandise or less, 20 cents;

Over 100 lbs. and less than 500, 15 cents hundred;

500 lbs. and upwards, 10 cents per hundred.

Furniture, Hay, &c. charged by bulk.

The Company will send for Goods in the business part of the city for the present upon leaving a memorandum at the Transportation Office.

If the quantity exceed 500 lbs. no charge will be made for hauling to the Depot, if less than 500 lbs.

the hauling will be charged in addition to the freight and will be responsible for any article not properly marked.

Goods not delivered at the Depot till within 30 minutes of the time for starting the Train, will not be sent up till the next trip.

Lumber to be loaded and unloaded by the owners, done by the Company will be a separate charge.

Shipped at Passenger Depot

Boards $1 00 per M.

Clapboards 1 00

Shingles 17 ris. 11

Laths 20

Delivered at City Point.

Boards $1 00 per M.

Clapboards 1 25

Shingles 20 ris. 11

Laths 23

All bills for transportation must be settled upon the day of the goods.

April 25 E HARRIS

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICES

W^E subscrbers, having been appointed by the Honorable Samuel M. Pond, to receive and examine the claims of creditors to the estate of John Rider, late of Bucksport, deceased, represented insolvent, do hereby give notice that six months are allowed to said creditors in filing in and prove their claims, and that we shall attend that service at the Office of S. Little in Bucksport, on the last

Saturdays of August and the four months next fol-owing at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of said days.

3. LITTLE, Commissioners.

S. L. LAKES. Bucksport, June 7, 1839. w3w 111

W^EHEREAS, Joshua Grant, of Bangor, in the County of Penobscot, and State of Maine,

Pauter, on the twentieth of March, A. D. 1833, by his Deed of that date, conveyed to me, the subscrber,

a certain tract or parcel of land, situate in said

Bangor, and described as set forth, to said Deed, particular reference being had to said deed recorded in the Registry of Deed's Office for said County of Penobscot, book 35, page 221, to hold to me in fee or Mortgage; I do hereby give notice that the condition of said Mortgage has been broken, and

I therefore claim to foreclose said Mortgage.

WILLIAM ELLIOTSON

Bangor, June 7, 1839. w3w 111

STATE OF MAINE.

RESOLVE, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State.

Resolved, That the two thirds of both Houses of the Legislature concurring, that the Constitution of this State be amended by striking out the fourth section of the sixth article thereof, and substituting in the room thereof, the words following, viz:

"Section 4. All Judicial officers, now in office, or who may be hereafter appointed, shall from and after the first day of March, in the year eighteen hundred and forty, hold their offices for the term of seven years from the time of their respective appointments (unless sooner removed by impeachment or by address of both branches of the Legislative to the Executive) and no longer, unless re-appointed thereto."

Resolved, That the Selectmen of the several towns, Assessors of the several plantations, and Aldermen of the cities, are hereby empowered and directed to notify the inhabitants of said towns, plan-ations, and cities, in the manner prescribed by law, at their next annual meeting in September, to give in their votes upon the following question:

"Shall the Constitution of the State be so amended as to strike out the fourth section in the sixth article, and substitute in room thereof the words following: viz: 'See 4. All Judicial officers now in office, or who may be hereafter appointed, shall from and after the first day of March, in the year eighteen hundred and forty, hold their offices for the term of seven years from the time of their respective appointments (unless sooner removed by impeachment or by address of both branches of the Legislature to the Executive) and no longer, unless reappointed thereto."

Resolved, That the inhabitants of said towns, plantations and cities, shall vote by ballot upon such question; those in favor of said amendment expressing it by the word Yes, upon their ballots, and those opposed to the amendment expressing it by the word No, upon their ballots.

Resolved, That the Selectmen, Assessors and Aldermen shall provide at said meetings, receive, count and declare the votes in open meeting; and the Clerks of said towns, plantations and cities, shall make a record of said proceedings, and of the number of votes, in the presence of the Selectmen, Assessors and Aldermen aforesaid, and transmit a true and attested copy of said record, sealed up, to the Secretary of State, and cause the same to be delivered to said Secretary on or before the first Wednesday of January next.

Resolved, That the Secretary of State shall cause this resolve to be published in all the newspapers printed in the State, for three months at least before the second Monday of September next, and also cause copies thereof, with a suitable table of

of all the towns, and to the Assessors of all the plan-ations, and to the Aldermen of all the cities in the State. And said Secretary shall, as early in August, as possible, in the next session of the Legislature, lay all such returns before said Legislature, with an account thereof, showing the number and state of the votes.

In the House of Representatives,

March 12, 1839.

Read and passed.

H. HAMLIN, Speaker.

In Senate, March 13, 1839.

Read and passed.

JON. PRINCE, President.

March 14, 1839. Apprved.

JOHN FAIRFIELD.

STATE OF MAINE.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

Augusta, March 15, 1839.

I hereby certify, that the foregoing is a true copy of the original Resolve in this office, and in par-tope of thereof, request all printers of newspapers in the State, to publish the same for three months at least before the second Monday of September next, "agreably to the provisions therein contained." Attest, J. A. NICHOLS.

JOHN FAIRFIELD, Secretary of State.

MILITARY BOUNTY LAND PA-

EMENT.

Illinois, Missouri and Arkansas, purchased.

Soldiers of the Revolution, and of the late war, who have not obtained their Patents, can dispose of their "MILITARY BOUNTY LAND PA-

EMENT."

B. E. WELLS, 26, 67, 7th Street, Boston.

Boston, May 17. w3m

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

THAT the Annual Meeting of the Orange Company, will be held at the House of William

Jones at Upper Stillwater on Monday the First day of July next, at 2 o'clock P.M. for the choice of Officers and for the transaction of all other business that may come regularly before them.

By order of the Directors.

S. J. MITCHELL, Clerk.

June 8, 1839. im

CITIZENS OF BANGOR

NOTICE IS HEREBY FORGOTTEN THAT

BRANDRETH'S PILLS

can never be obtained, genuine, of Physicians or Druggists. They invariably sell Base Counterfeits calculated to injure and therefore ruin the genuine article! Remember! Go to

SMITH & FENNO'S,

Where you can be certain of the genuine Article.

B. BRANDRETH, M. D.

PUBLIC OPINION IS SEDIMENT WRONG. Junius

THE WORK COMMENCES IN A VERY SIMPLE MANNER

SO AS TO BE COMPLETELY UNDERSTOOD BY THE MOST MODERATE CAPACITY, HAVING NO PREVIOUS KNOWLEDGE OF THE SUBJECT.